IN MEMORIUM
COLONEL RICHARD A. LUCCIO, ESQ.
CAPTAIN COMMANDING 1997 -1998

COLONEL RICHARD A. LUCCIO distinguished 289th Commander of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts died the morning of 7 October 2012 surrounded by his family at his home at Palm Beach, Florida. He was the beloved husband of Catherine A. (Casey) for 49 years. He was the loving father of two daughters Darlene Luccio Jordan and her husband Gerald of Boston and Palm Beach, Florida and Andrea Desiree Luccio and her husband Reed Frerichs of Palm Beach, Florida. His greatest joys were his two granddaughters Charlotte Jordan and Catherine Frerichs.

COL Luccio was born 10 October 1934 in Boston. He was preceded in death by his mother Emma (Delvechio) and brother Ronald. His surviving brother James and father Sammo reside at West Harwich. COL Luccio was a former teacher who pursued his passion for the law, attending law school evenings while raising his family. He was able to accomplish many career goals, but was most proud to be the first Italian-American appointed to the Massachusetts State Parole Board.

COL Luccio was proud of his service in the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts; elected as the 389th Captain Commanding for 1997 -1998. COL Luccio was enrolled in the Company 5 September 1972. He Served 40 years and was a Senior Life Member. During his many years' service he was an active participant in Company affairs. He served on the Military Support Committee in 1978-79. He was elected 4th Sergeant of Artillery for the 1984-85 year. The following Company year he served as a Flanker to the Captain. COL Luccio was Public Information Officer for the 1988-89 Company year then served the following year as member of the Membership Committee.

COL Luccio began his command progression with his election as Second Lieutenant in 1992 in a hard fought three way election race. He returned as First Lieutenant in 1994-95 and finally achieved the office of Captain Commanding for the 1997 - 1998 Company year. During his tenure he conducted a very successful Fall Field Day Tour of Duty and also adeptly handled several political and legal controversies to the favor of the Company. He will be remembered for his hard work and professional competence.

COL Luccio was a veteran of the United States Army Reserve and later accepted an honorary commission in the Rhode Island Militia. Prior to his passing he was promoted to the honorary grade of Brigadier General in the Rhode Island Militia.

COLONEL RICHARD A. LUCCIO, ESQ.
OFFICIAL OBITUARY

Attorney Richard A. Luccio Of Palm Beach, FL, formerly of Dedham, died the morning of October 7, 2012, at home, surrounded by his family. He was the beloved husband of Catherine A. (Casey) for 49 years. Richie was the loving father to his two daughters, Darlene Luccio Jordan and her husband Gerald of Boston and Palm Beach, FL and Andrea Desiree Luccio and her husband Reed Frerichs of Palm Beach, FL. His greatest joys were his two granddaughters Charlotte Jordan and Catherine Frerichs and they truly adored him. Born October 10, 1934 in Boston, Richie was preceded in death by his mother Emma (Delvechio) and brother Ronald. Brother James and father Sarno reside in West Harwich. A former teacher who pursued his passion for the law, Richie attended law school in the evenings while raising his family. He was able to accomplish many career goals but he was proudest of being the first Italian American appointed to the Massachusetts State Board. Richie also enjoyed being a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Massachusetts where he made life long friends and was honored to serve as Captain Commanding of the organization.

360th June Day Anniversary
Monday 2 June 1997

The June Day Anniversary observation began with the traditional Reveille Ceremony outside the Westin Hotel, Boston at Copley Square followed by the staff breakfast at the hotel. Following breakfast the in-coming and out-going command groups were transported by limousine to conduct wreath-laying ceremonies at our beloved member President John F. Kennedy's statue on the grounds of the Massachusetts State House then on to the King's Chapel Burial Ground to place a wreath at the grave of our first Captain Commanding, Captain Robert Keayne. A luncheon collation followed in the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company Armory at Faneuil Hall.

At noon the Adjutant, COL Thomas E. Richter called the Company to order on North Street for the June Day Parade. After appropriate honors to the nation the Company under the command of out-going Captain Commanding, CPT Paul J. Mahoney, KM stepped off at 1230 Hrs. The Parade included various Massachusetts National Guard units, local active military units, the visiting delegations of the Centennial Legion and a significant number from the Honourable Artillery Company of London including the Band, the Corps of Drums, the Pikemen and Musketeers and a delegation from the active regiment.. The parade proceeded via School Street to Tremont Street to the Cathedral Curch of Saint Paul for the annual Memorial Church Service conducted by Chaplain (BG) Robert M. Durkee and Chaplain (COL) Edward D. McCabe. COL Richter read the roll of those members who passed away over the past Company year. The Chaplains conducted a beautiful ceremony with appropriate instrumental and vocal presentations.

Following the church service the parade reformed on Tremont Street and proceeded via Boylston Street to Charles Street to the Boston Common Parade Ground for the Drumhead Election and Commissioning Ceremonies. Once the Parade was formed on the Parade Ground Governor A. Paul Cellucci entered on to the field receiving honors from the Massachusetts Army National Guard Salute Battery. Governor Cellucci, CPT Mahoney, The Adjutant General MG Raymond Vezina and BG (MA) Joseph A. Milano then trooped the line of parade.

After the inspection of troops COL Richter formed the square of Sergeants and the Drumhead Election was reenacted. The roster of in-coming elected officers and sergeants was announced to the crowd. In order, the out-going Captain Commanding, CPT Paul J. Mahoney marched forward to tender his resignation to the Governor then in-coming Captain Commanding, COL Richard Luccio marched forward to accept his commission from the governor. As in-coming and out-going commanders passed each other on the parade ground they received a cannon salute from the Salute Battery. The same procedure was followed for the First Lieutenant LT Roy S. Chase, out-going and COL John Arthur Moore, incoming. The Second Lieutenants COL William J. O'Brien, out-going and Second Lieutenant Joseph C. Benoit, in-coming likewise reported to the Governor.

At the conclusion of the Commissioning Ceremony the new commander COL Luccio led the Parade in a pass-in-review for the Governor, the Adjutant General and other dignitaries in attendance. The Parade then proceeded to Copley Square for a formal Retreat Ceremony and dismissal.

The 360th Anniversary black tie was given at the Westin at 1830 Hrs.The keynote speaker was General Richard I. Neal, Assistant Commandant of the U.S. Marine Corps. General Neal is a Hull, MA native and has subsequently become a member of the Company.

360th FALL FIELD DAY
TOUR OF DUTY
Munich, Germany
Prague, Czech Republic
2 October - 13 October 1997

Captain Commanding COL Richard A. Luccio led the Company to Munich, Germany and to Prague, Czech Republic for a very historic and meaningful Fall Field Day Tour of Duty. The itinerary was quite full and included several meaningful ceremonies in both host countries.

The Company departed Boston the evening of Thursday 2 October for an overnight flight to Munich, Germany the capital of Bavaria. Members checked in to the Hilton Hotel near the enormous city park then had the afternoon to acclimate followed by the traditional Sergeants' arrival party. The evening was highlighted by traditional Bavarian music and wonderful German cuisine.

Saturday 4 October members enjoyed a breakfast at the hotel then spent the day at the world-famous Munich Oktoberfest. The day was spent in fellowship quaffing great German beers, gorging on hearty beer garden fare and the music and excitement of the world's biggest beer blast.

Sunday 5 October Chaplain McCabe led the Company in church services then travellers enjoyed a day and evening at leisure. Monday the 5th saw the Company touring Hitler's Berchtesgaden and the Austrian town of Salzburg. The afternoon and evening offered more free time to explore independently.

Tuesday 7 October initiated the ceremonial aspect of the trip with the Company presenting honors to the Unknown Soldier and a ceremony at Nymphenburg Castle. This evening was the FFDTD Reception and the banquet with a keynote speech by recently retired Chief-of-Staff of the Army, General Gordon Sullivan. The General gave his views on current military events and related some stories from his many years' service in Germany during the Cold War. General Sullivan subsequently became a member of the Company.

On Wednesday 8 October following breakfast at the hotel the Company departed by motor coach to the Czech Republic. At the border crossing the Company was greeted by Czech political and military dignitaries with a traditional visitors' welcome of bread and salt. The unit then travelled on to a Regensburg Tour and lunch at Pilsen, site of the furthest advance of the 26th (Yankee) Infantry Division at the close of WW II. From there it was on to Prague, hotel check in and the Sergeants' welcome party.

Thursday 9 October following breakfast at the hotel the Company toured the historic city of Prague, Prague Castle and the Chain Bridge. Lunch followed at the U'Flecku Brewery. The evening was at leisure. Friday the 10th was a ceremonial day with a wreath service at the Dublice Cemetery honoring two U.S. soldiers killed in WW II and the Czech patriots victims of WW II and the Cold War. Lunch was at the residence of the United States Ambassador. The evening was a leisure.

Saturday 11 October was for optional tours and leisure time to further explore Prague. Sunday 12 October featured Mass with the Cardinal at St. Vitus Cathedral and a changing of the guard ceremony at the Citadel . The Farewell Banquet was given at the historic Francouzska Restaurant.

Sunday 13 October the Company departed Prague for the return flight to Boston.
